

ADDITIONAL SUPPLEMENTARY DOCUMENTATION

Matter of Good Character and Credibility

Where an applicant does not provide evidence of good character satisfactory to the Registrar or Vice President, Student Services, the matter will be referred to an oral hearing before the Admission and Registration Committee. An individual may withdraw their application for registration at any time, including if a referral to the Admission and Registration Committee.

At the time of registration or at any point while an active student, in circumstances where evaluation of an application requires assessment of the applicant's credibility, the Registrar or Vice President, Student Services will refer the matter to an oral hearing before the Admission and Registration Committee.

The Admission and Registration Committee can make an order refusing the applicant's registration, or may impose terms and conditions if appropriate.

Please see Regulation 9-1 for details.

Bankruptcy

Applicants and students are required to disclose matters of bankruptcy to the Registrar or Vice-President of Student Services. After the relevant information is collected, an application can be accepted, denied or have to abide by one or more terms or conditions. Please see Regulation 9-1 for details.

Appealing registration decisions

An applicant who is refused registration can be appeal that decision. Please see Regulation 9-1 for details.

Reregistration

A Student who has been deregistered shall not be reregistered except in extraordinary circumstances, or under the terms and conditions imposed on the student by the Admission and Registration Committee, or the Appeal Committee. Please see Regulation 9-1 for details.

Reapplications After Refusal of Registration

For applicants who are refused registration because of their inability to satisfy one of the registration categories may re-apply when they're able to satisfy those conditions. In all other cases, an applicant must wait five years to reapply, subject to any terms and conditions imposed on their refusal to register.