1 Overview

The CPA certification Program

To complete the CPA Certification Program, future CPAs must satisfy three components¹:

- CPA Professional Education Program (CPA PEP)
- Common Final Examination (CFE)
- CPA Practical Experience Requirements (CPA PER)

This document will provide guidance and assistance for CPA mentors as they support future CPAs in PERT.

Future CPAs reporting from Quebec will need to visit Ordre Des Comptables Professionnels Agréés Du Quebec for their information.

CPA Practical Experience requirements (CPA PER)

The CPA PER comprises the following elements:

1. Qualifying Experience: Future CPAs gain relevant paid employment that is progressively complex
2. Appropriate Supervision: Supervisors, mentors, program managers and program leaders will provide support to future CPAs throughout their practical experience
3. Reporting and Self-Assessment: Future CPAs report work experience and self-assess on their progress
4. CPA Mentorship: Future CPAs must meet with a mentor semi-annually
5. Assessment by Profession: At key milestones, experience report(s) must be reviewed by the provincial/regional CPA body.

Refer to the Practical Experience Requirements \(CPA PER\) and CPA Harmonized Practical Experience Policies for detailed requirements.

¹ Please refer to your provincial/regional CPA body for exact requirements.

CPA candidates

CPA candidates from the Western, Atlantic and International regions are eligible to begin reporting once they begin the CPA PEP.

CPA students

CPA students in Ontario are eligible to begin reporting once they are registered with CPA Ontario.

Future CPAs

For the purposes of this user guide, both candidates and students will be referred to as “future CPAs”.

2 Experience Routes

There are two experience routes a future CPA can follow to report their experience:

Pre-approved Program route (PPR)

Employers offering pre-approved programs have worked with their respective provincial/regional CPA bodies to design a program ensuring that the required experience can be met within 30 months.

In this route, the employer must provide a pre-approved program manager, pre-approved program leader and mentor to support the future CPAs in the program. If your employer has asked you to mentor a future CPA within the program, ensure you declare that you are mentoring within a pre-approved program on the registration form (or update your profile to reflect it).

Experience Verification route (EVR)

This flexible self-directed route allows future CPAs to gain practical experience from an employer of their choice. They must still be employed in a qualifying role, which is determined through a pre-assessment. There are more touch-points throughout the journey and more guidance from a mentor is often needed as compared to a pre-approved program.

An employer can have future CPAs in both routes working for them, but only those in the PPR will follow the specific program laid out for them. EVRs can be mentored by any CPA in good standing.

Unemployed

If a future CPA is unemployed (or not employed in a relevant role), their experience route will be reflected as “Unemployed”. A future CPA does not gain recognition toward gaining their practical experience competencies while they are unemployed.

Future CPAs in a Co-op are considered unemployed while in school. However, there are some conditions in which an employer may allow them to remain “In Progress” on their roster (e.g. the national firms).

For more information on the two experience routes, please visit the practical experience overview webpage.

3 The Practical Experience Reporting Tool (PERT)

All future CPAs (excluding those in Quebec) are required to document their practical experience development in the Practical Experience Reporting Tool (PERT). This allows the CPA profession to track their progress and assess whether they have met the CPA Practical Experience Requirements \(CPA PER\).

This guide provides guidance on individuals who support future CPAs in PERT as their mentor. If you also support future CPAs as a program manager or program leader, refer to the PERT Guide for Program Manager and Program Leaders.

As a mentor, you are responsible for:

- meeting with your mentee at least semi-annually;
- documenting these meetings in PERT; and
- documenting any unresolved concerns in PERT.

Once you have logged into PERT, you will arrive on your Home page. Here you can see a list of your mentees and any other pending items if you support future CPAs through another role.

Mentors play a critical role in the success of future CPAs. Through your coaching and mentoring activities around competency development, you help shape the future of our profession.

To learn more about mentoring, visit the Mentor Resource Centre.

If your mentee has requested a Mentor Meeting, click on their name and select the Mentor Meeting tab. Click View on the most recent Mentor Meeting and complete the form.

If you are no longer mentoring a student/candidate, select End Relationship and indicate the reason why. The mentee will not receive a notification, therefore we encourage you to notify them directly so they can find a new mentor.

This date triggers a reminder for your mentee to update their experience reports in PERT.

After they update their experience report, they will be prompted to request a meeting with you to discuss their experience.

End relationship

It is normal for CPA mentoring relationships to end. The main reasons are:

- Relationship is not working
- Student/candidate has left the organization
- Mentor has left the organization
- A new mentor has been assigned

If you would like to remove your mentees details from your profile, click End Relationship and identify the reason the relationship is ending (your mentee will not see the reason).

If your mentee ends the relationship, you will be notified by email.

4 Mentor Meetings

Future CPAs are required to report mentor meetings semi-annually. Failure to do so will result in 30-day duration penalty for every missed meeting.

Mentor meetings are an opportunity for your mentee to discuss their development with you. They should schedule a meeting each time they update their experience report. Through PERT, they will send you a meeting request, but it is not a calendar invitation. They must contact you directly to schedule a date.

Mentor meetings can take place in person or virtually and must be a free-flow conversation.

Preparation for the meeting

Once they have requested a meeting through PERT (and set up a time and place that works for you), your mentee should prepare for the meeting by gathering all their information, examples and questions they might have for you.

During this meeting, you are expected to help your mentee reflect on their competencies and discuss whether their self-assessment accurately reflects their experience. Therefore, it is recommended that you familiarize yourself with their experience report before the meeting.

Viewing their report(s)

1. From your Home page, or your Mentees page in PERT, click on your mentee's name.

This will take you to their Home page where you can view a snapshot of their progress (outstanding action items, eligible duration, competency progress).

ENABLING COMPETENCIES

Enabling competencies reflect the key elements that comprise the personal attributes of a CPA.

There are five competency areas containing three-part questions. You are not expected to document all five enabling competencies semi-annually. Only choose the enabling competencies that most reflect your professional development obtained during this reporting period.

Provide tangible examples and clear explanations to demonstrate how you've developed proficiency in each of the enabling competencies.

Ensure you also demonstrate how you applied the CPA Way. To learn more about the CPA Way and how to apply these principles when formulating your responses to these questions, click here.

For confidentiality reasons, do not include client, customer or organization names in your examples. Also note that the information in your Experience Reports is accessible to those involved in the review and verification process, including Program Leader/Manager, Supervisor, Mentor, CPA staff, etc.

Breaches of the CPA Professional Code of Ethics by a designated CPA member (colleague, employer, client, etc.) should be reported to your provincial body.

To expand on a competency area, click "+".

For further information use the (?) for additional guidance.

Question 1: Acting Ethically and Demonstrating Professional Values 		Not assessed	Not assessed	+
Question 2: Solving Problems and Adding Value 		Level 1	Not assessed	+
Question 3: Communicating 		Not assessed	Not assessed	+
Question 4: Managing Self 		Level 1	Not assessed	+
Question 5: Collaborating and Leading 		Not assessed	Not assessed	+

SUMMARY QUESTIONS

While answering these questions, please reflect on your progress over this reporting period while also setting your focus on how you'll move forward. We recommend that you discuss these points with your mentor. Summary Questions will not be assessed, however they make a strong foundation for your progression tracking and discussions with your mentor.

If you answered an Enabling Competency question, then you will also need to answer Summary Question A.

SUMMARY QUESTION	ANSWERED
Summary Questions

Question A (Required)

Identify key competency areas (enabling and/or technical) you will focus on developing or improving between now and your next meeting with your mentor. What is your action plan for doing so?

1. Enabling competency area - Leading and Collaborating: I want to focus on developing my leadership and collaboration skills as I progress toward becoming a senior accountant. I intend to do this by remaining alert to how my current seniors run engagements and thinking critically about approaches that I think work and ones that do not. I will improve my leadership skills by attending firm training sessions, furthering my professional education through successful completion of CPA modules, maintaining a positive and friendly attitude at work towards all levels of coworkers, and promoting a culture of open and honest communication.

Question B

Looking back at your experience captured in this report, in which competency areas (enabling or technical) do you feel most confident in your abilities and why?

To view specific technical or enabling answers, you will need to select the competency or the + where an answer has been given.

You are not expected to verify the factual accuracy on your mentee's experience reports (their supervisor or program leader does this).

Note: For PPR, your mentee will have pre-populated position duties. They only need to provide a self-assessed proficiency level.

To see additional information on their experience reports, refer to the appendix.

During the meeting

During the meeting, help your mentee reflect on their competencies, share your own experiences, discuss whether their self-assessments accurately reflect their experience and help them set goals.

For technical competencies, help them determine whether they have self-assessed to a level that is reasonable (e.g. have they self-assessed too high? Or to low?) and (for EVR) that their job duties description also matches the level (e.g. have they described their level of autonomy, circumstance, etc.).

For enabling competencies, help them reflect on their experience and answer any questions around their development.

After the meeting

After the meeting, you are required to log in to PERT and document the meeting. This should be done within one week of your meeting.

1. From your mentee's PERT record, click on the Mentor Meetings page.

The screenshot shows the PERT interface for a mentor. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the CPA logo and links for Home, Resources, Français, English, and a dropdown menu for 'Impersonating Fake M' with options 'as a Mentor' and 'Close'. Below this is a blue header for 'PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE REPORTING TOOL (PERT)'. The main content area has a breadcrumb trail: HOME | EXPERIENCE REPORTS | CONSOLIDATED SUMMARY | MENTOR MEETINGS | CPA REVIEWS. On the left, there is a sidebar for the mentor 'FAKE M18024' with links for 'VIEW MY PROFILE' and 'VIEW MY MENTEEES'. The main content area is titled 'MENTOR MEETINGS' and includes a description: 'Mentor Meetings are an opportunity for you to discuss your development with a CPA; they must be completed on a semi-annual basis. PER Glossary

These definitions are found in the CPA Practical Experience Requirements (CPA PER); they are not intended to modify or interpret provincial/regional CPA regulations or bylaws.

Autonomy:

The degree of independence CPA students/candidates assume in carrying out a task. See also Circumstance and Complexity.

Breadth:

The requirement for CPA students/candidates to gain proficiency in at least eight technical competency sub-areas, of which four must be at Level 2 proficiency and the remaining four at least at Level 1 proficiency. See also Depth, Core, Competency sub-area and competency statements and Proficiency level.

Chargeable hours:

Hours supervised (directly or overall) by a CPA registrant that are normally chargeable to clients. Chargeable hours do not include time spent on “work of a routine clerical nature.”

Circumstance:

Situations are either routine or non-routine in nature. See also autonomy and complexity.

- Routine — Circumstances typically encountered by and requiring the knowledge expected of newly certified CPAs.
- Non-routine — Circumstances not typically encountered by newly certified CPAs; may require advanced technical expertise.

Competency area:

One of the 11 competency areas defined in The CPA Competency Map. There are six technical competency areas: Financial Reporting, Management Accounting, Taxation, Strategy and Governance, Finance, and Audit and Assurance; and five enabling competency areas: Professional and Ethical Behaviour, Problem-Solving and Decision-Making, Communication, Self-Management, and Teamwork and Leadership. See also Competency sub-area and competency statements.

Competency sub-area and competency statements:

The specific technical competency statements are grouped into 20 competency sub-areas. Each competency area has between three to four competency sub-areas. See also Competency area and CPA Competency Map.

Complexity:

The degree of difficulty associated with the number and nature of interrelationships and ambiguities that must be considered simultaneously.

There are three levels of complexity:

- Low complexity — Little difficulty is associated with a small number of straightforward and frequently encountered issues; may achieve competence relying on “rote” approach.
- Moderate complexity — Medium difficulty is associated with a number of interconnections or variables that need to be considered simultaneously; circumstances may be less clear and require approaches that are not practiced frequently.
- High complexity — Considerable difficulty is associated with a large number of interrelationships and ambiguities that must be considered simultaneously; often requires innovative approaches.

See also Autonomy and Circumstance.

Core:

All CPA students/candidates must demonstrate technical proficiency in any three competency sub-areas, at least at Level 1 proficiency, in financial reporting and/or management accounting. See also Breadth, Depth, Competency sub-area and competency statements.

CPA:

Canadian Chartered Professional Accountant; while there are other international CPA designations, all references in this document refer to the Canadian designation.

CPA candidate:

Individuals who are registered with a provincial or regional body and:

- are enrolled in a CPA Professional Education Program (CPA PEP), either through the profession’s CPA PEP or through an accredited graduate level program offered by a post-secondary institution; or
- have completed the CPA PEP modules and have yet to successfully complete the Common Final Examination (CFE), and/or their practical experience requirements.

Note that the terms “candidate” or “student” may be used by provincial/regional bodies, depending on provincial/regional regulation. See CPA student.

CPA certification program:

All elements of the CPA program required for certification, including academic prerequisites, the CPA Professional Education Program, the Common Final Examination, and qualifying practical experience.

CPA Competency Map:

The CPA publication that profiles the competencies required of a CPA on the path to, and upon, certification. The competency statements and defined proficiency levels for practical experience are modified from those in the CPA Competency Map. These adjustments were made to reflect what CPA students/candidates are expected to demonstrate through practical experience.

CPA experience verification:

The CPA practical experience model in which commences when CPA students/candidates are employed in any position that allows them to gain experience in at least one sub-competency area at least Level 1 proficiency. The experience is approved by a provincial/regional body as the experience is gained.

CPA pre-approved program:

Programs offered by employers that allow CPA students/candidates to satisfy all of the practical experience requirements within the required minimum term of practical experience. Pre-approved programs are monitored by the profession to ensure the approved training program is being followed.

CPA review:

For purposes of practical experience, CPA review includes CPA students/candidates performing self-assessments of the level of proficiency developed for each competency area, and a provincial/regional body assessing the experience of CPA students/candidates. The CPA review is called “Assessment” in the CPA PER. See also Reporting, Competency area and Proficiency level.

CPA student:

Individuals registered with a provincial/regional body and working towards prerequisites for admission to CPA PEP — either in CPA preparatory courses or in recognized courses and programs offered by post-secondary institutions.

Note that the term “student” may be used by provincial/regional bodies to refer to CPA candidates, depending on provincial/regional regulation.

See CPA candidate.

Depth:

The requirement for CPA students/candidates to gain proficiency in all technical competency sub-areas relating to one competency area, with at least two competency sub-areas being at Level 2 proficiency. The remaining competency sub-areas need to be at least at Level 1 proficiency. See also Breadth, Core, Competency sub-area and competency statements.

Enabling competencies:

The essential skills for ethical behaviour, decision making, problem-solving, communication, and leadership required of a professional accountant. See also Competency area, the CPA Competency Map, and Technical competencies.

Foundational level:

An employment position in which the majority of technical proficiency is at Level 0, with only one competency sub-area at Level 1 proficiency.

Mentor:

A CPA, or another individual otherwise approved by a provincial/regional body under the requirements contained in the CPA PER, who provides guidance to CPA students/candidates on competency development, and who models and facilitates the understanding of the CPA profession's values, ethics and attitudes.

Practical experience reporting tool (PERT):

The online tool for CPA students/candidates to report their practical experience. PERT is used in all provinces/regions, with the exception of Quebec.

Pre-approved program leader:

The senior CPA responsible for an office's preapproved program(s). This individual is sufficiently senior to adjust the duties of CPA students/ candidates to provide opportunities to obtain the technical and enabling competencies required of the training program. See also CPA pre-approved program, Mentor and Supervisor

Proficiency level:

At the point of certification, CPA students/candidates are expected to demonstrate competence (a combination of attitude, skill, and knowledge) at defined levels of proficiency. Three distinct and progressively higher levels of proficiency are described, reflecting the increase in the ability of CPA students/candidates throughout the program. Complexity, circumstance, and autonomy are considered in determining proficiency levels. Generally, as complexity increases and/or routine work decreases and/or autonomy increases, the proficiency level increases.

There are three levels of proficiency:

1. Level 0 — Experience that is at an administrative or clerical level.
2. Level 1 — Experience that is at the professional level but lower than that expected of a newly certified CPA. This can include experience with tasks that are routine in nature, of a low level of complexity, and/or are executed with little autonomy.
3. Level 2 — The experience level expected of a newly certified CPA. See also Autonomy, Circumstance, and Complexity.

Provincial/regional body:

A professional accounting body that is a member of CPA Canada.

Reporting:

CPA students/candidates are required to capture all practical experience in experience reports. The reports contain factual information such as the type of experience being obtained (through experience verification or through a pre-approved program) and duration, as well as an assessment of the experience.

Secondment:

Qualifying experience obtained outside of the pre-approved program that does not require CPA students/candidates to switch to experience-verification.

Self-employed:

Individuals who work under contract or in a consultative capacity for someone other than themselves are not considered to be self-employed.

Supervisor:

The person to whom CPA students/candidates report. In experience verification, the supervisor verifies that the experiences of CPA students/candidates are appropriately reflected in experience reports. In pre-approved programs the supervisor assigns work according to the program. Ideally, the supervisor is also a professional accountant. See also Mentor.

Technical competencies:

The abilities expected of professional accountants and performed by professional accountants in many roles in public practice, industry, and the public sector.

For purposes of practical experience, the required technical competencies have depth, breadth and core proficiency standards. See also Competency area, CPA Competency Map, Depth, Breadth, Core and Enabling competencies.

Volunteer:

Experience where there is no financial gain for the individual.
