- in writing as an opposed motion;
- in the absence of the public under subrule 13.01(2);
- orally

Committee the motion is to be heard by:

- Discipline
- Appeals
- Capacity
- Admission & Registration

THE MOTION IS FOR (state here the precise relief sought): Relief from Orders 2 and 8 requiring a remittance of $5,000 and $15,000 respectively, and reregistering as a Member.

THE GROUNDS FOR THE MOTION ARE (set out briefly the grounds to be argued, including a reference to any statutory provision or rule to be relied on): I have been unemployed since October 2018. I have exhausted all my savings and government assistance. I'm living off support from family to pay for the essentials. As per s24.1, my financial circumstance has materially changed for me to be able to fulfil any monetary obligations. I've served/fulfilled the remaining 6 Orders within its required timeframe. This whole process has already inserted a strong feeling of guilt and a new level of respect of bearing the designation. I earnestly plead and request the
